Dear Buddy (alias Beethoven),

You're a swell friend Buddy. It's been a lot of fun in school together. It was fun in Berkeley, no? yes! We've learned a lot about your personality and ideals lately and some of them are real swell. You'll probably go a long way in music and best of luck to you in that field.

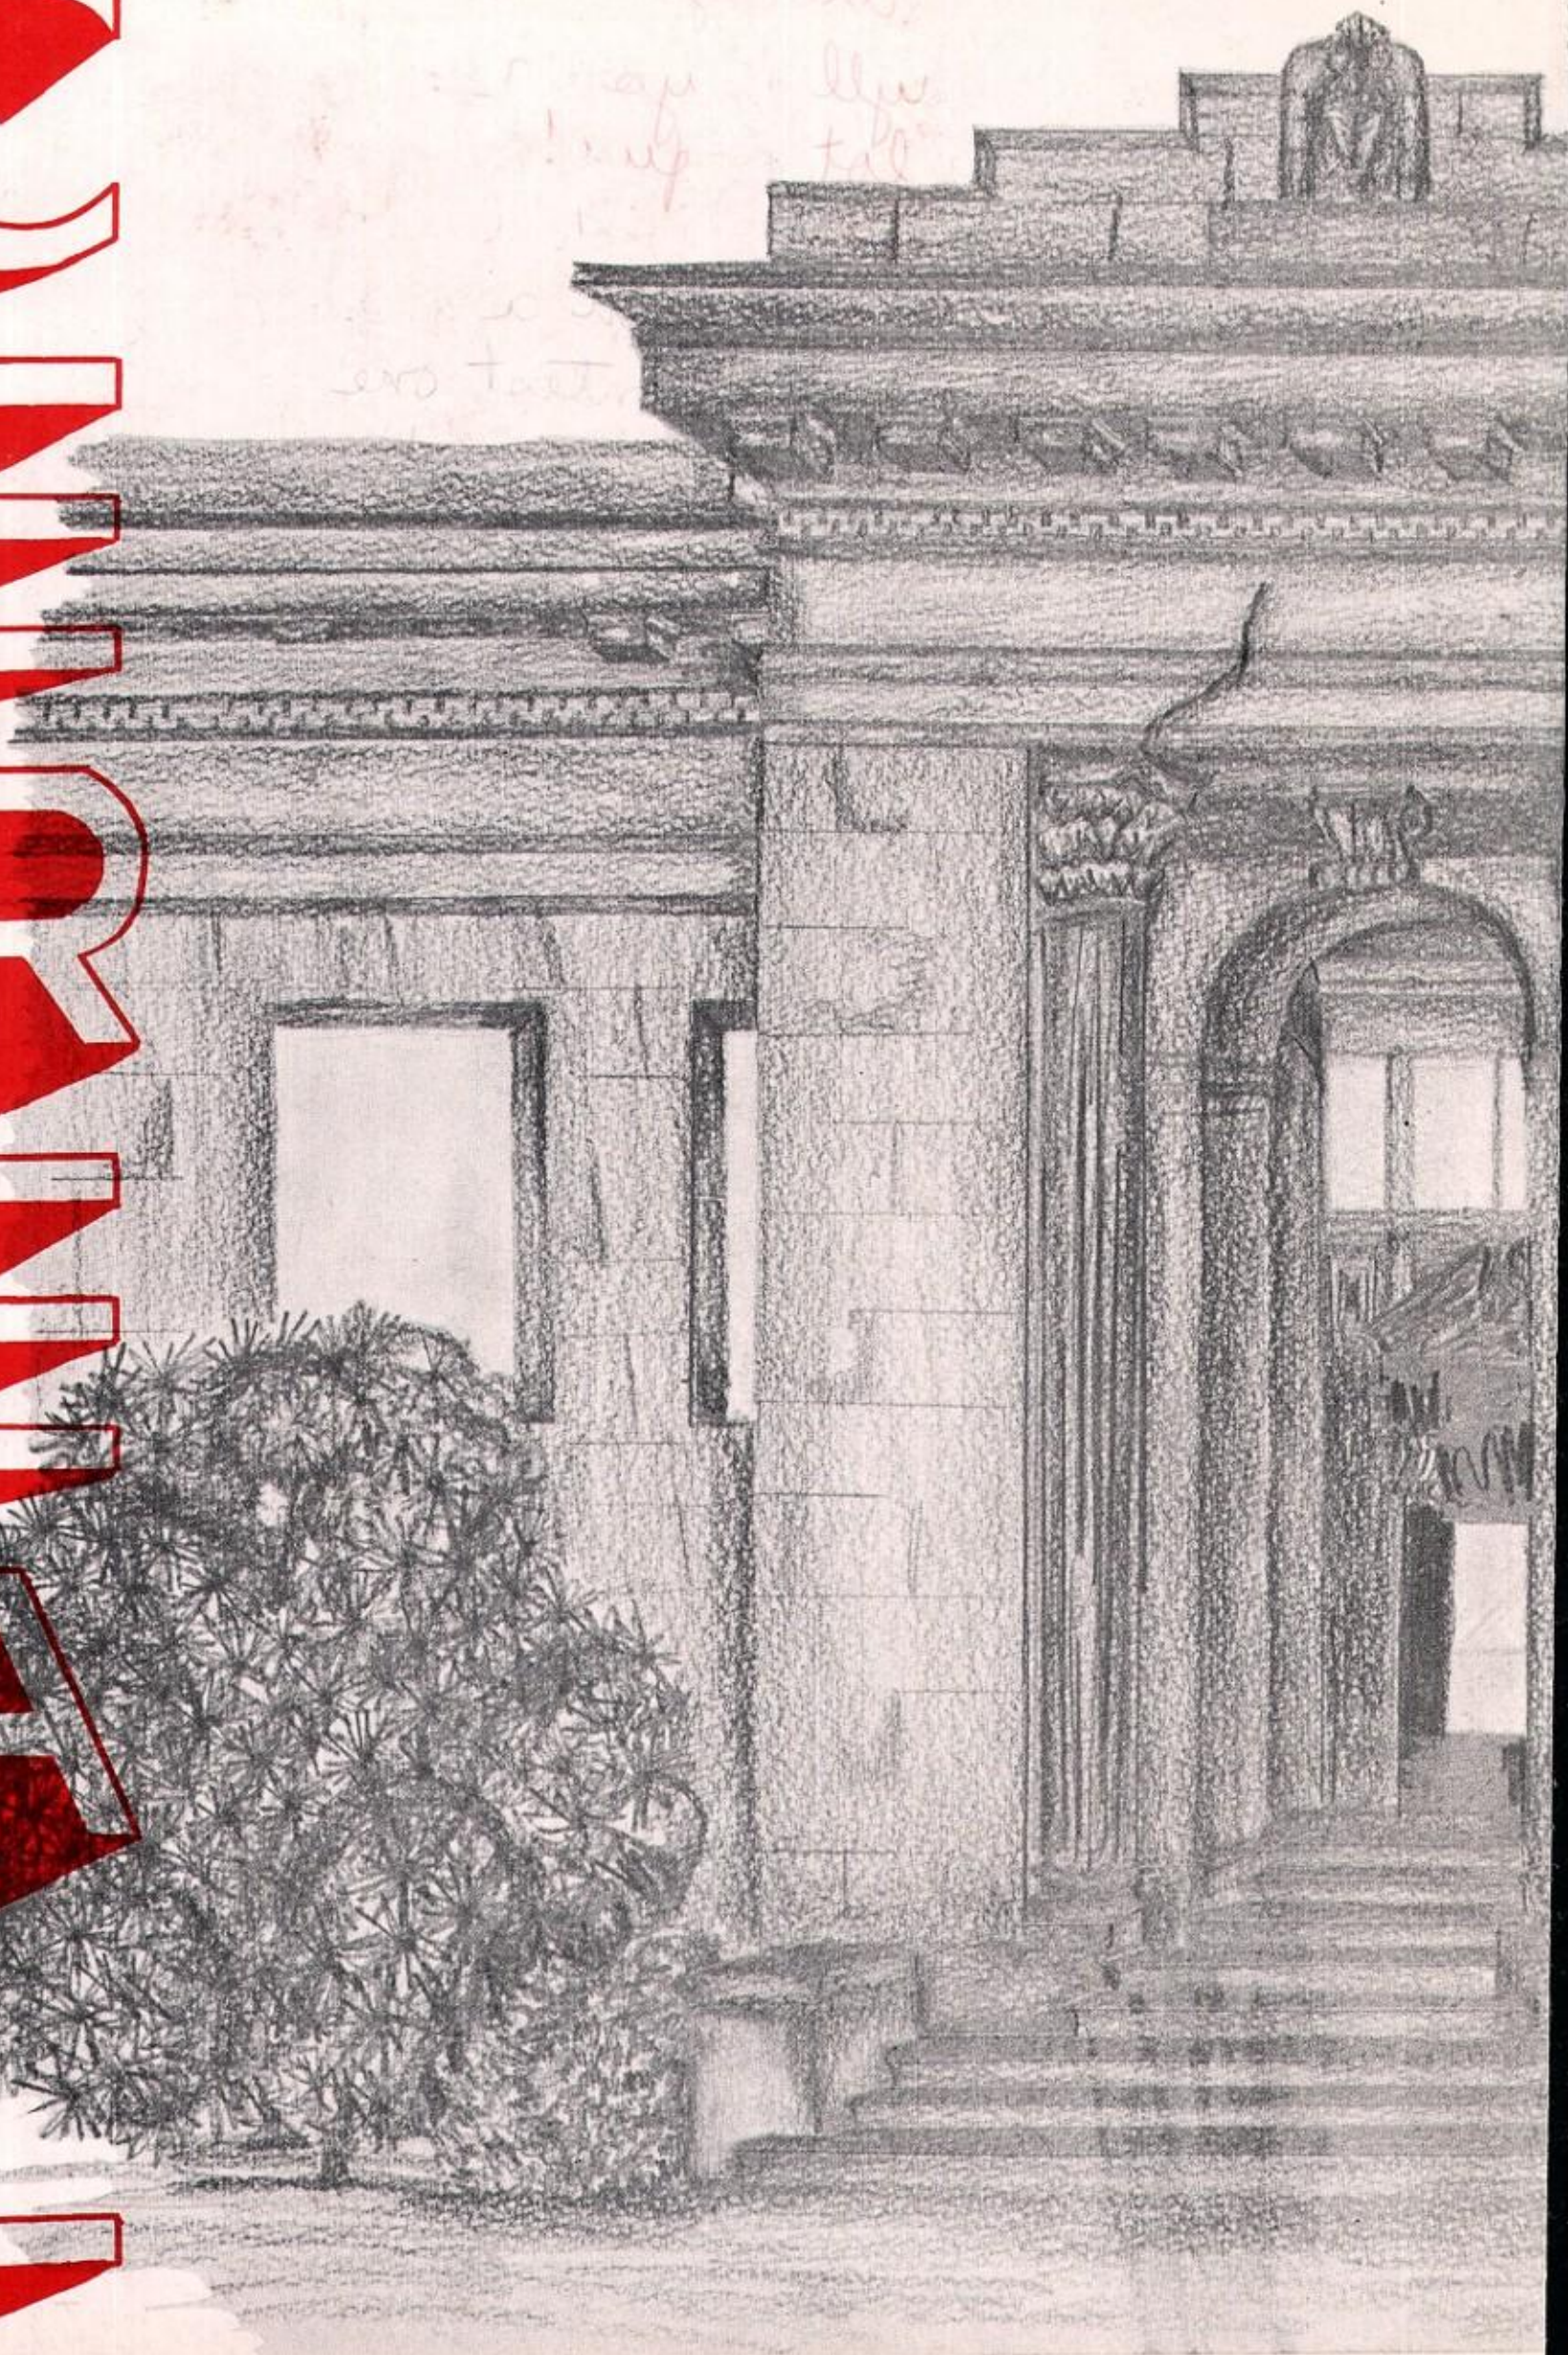

Let's get together a lot this summer, and we'll have a blast.

Do you realize that God has a purpose for you in this life and in this world, Buddy? What ever it is, you must do your best in every thing and do it like it is the last thing you'll ever do. With a big goal in your life, your everyday job will be a lot easier.

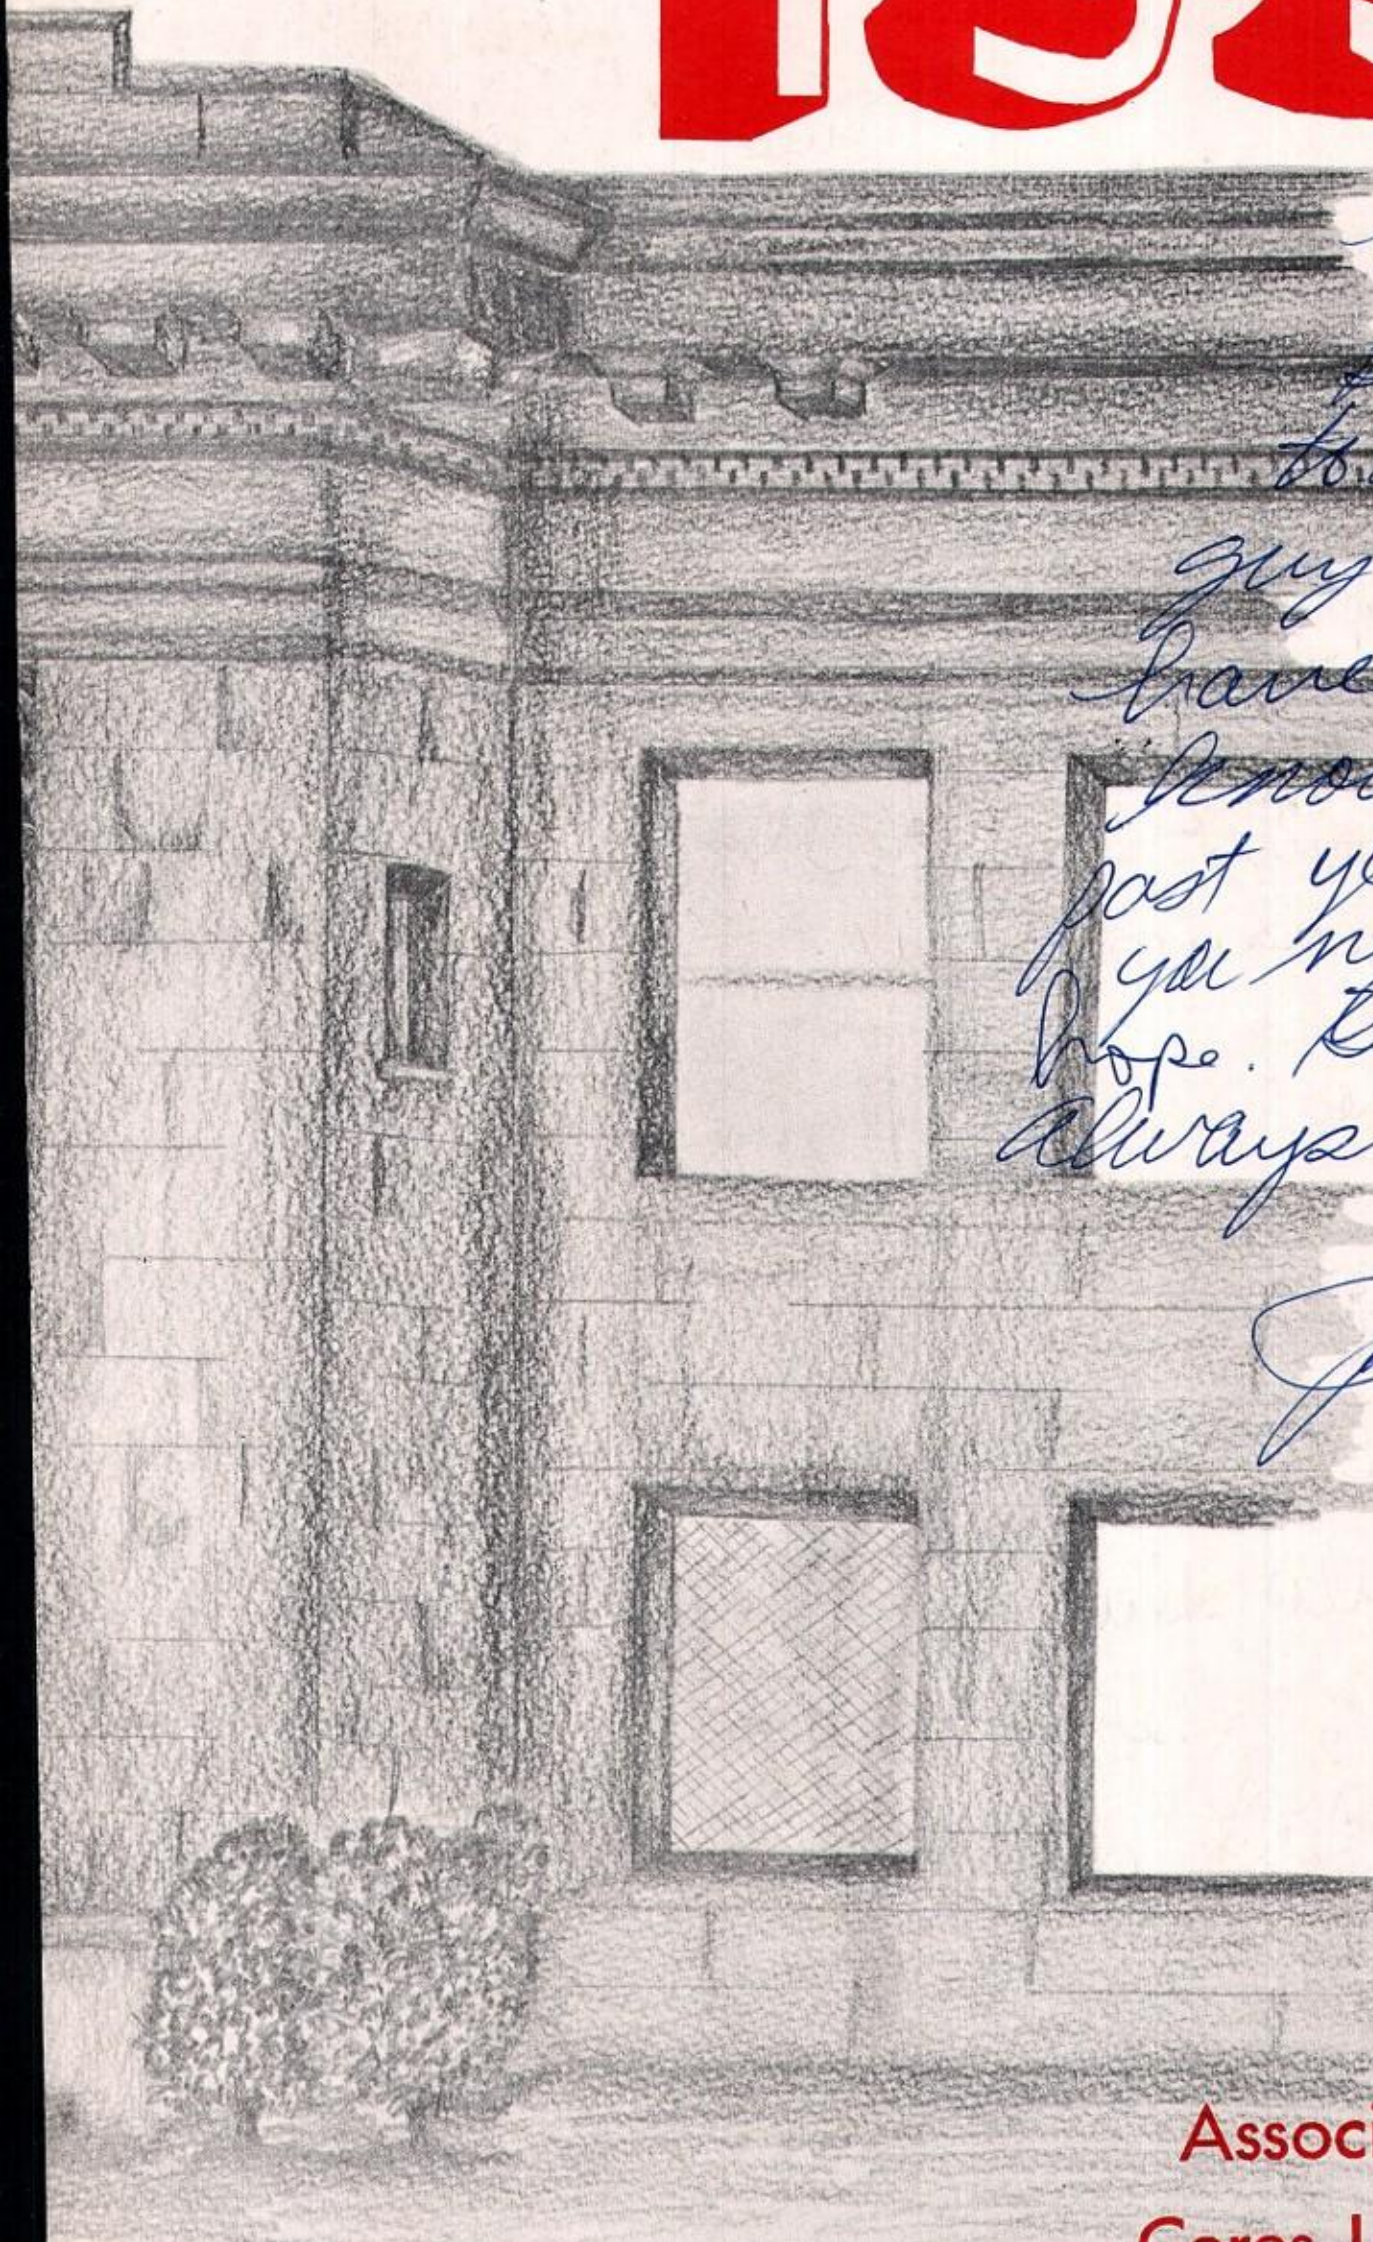

If I have any part in your future life I'll do my best to live up to God's purposes. Your dates have been a lot of fun, and you're a "swell" person to go out with.

Your generous too. Thanks for all the treats.

I love ya'

Best wishes to a real swell
guy who I have enjoyed knowing this past year. See you next year &
hope. Good luck

Forward

Hard work, worry, and anticipation have been exercised by all those connected with the Cereal Staff in bringing you this edition of the 1958 Cereal.

We have attempted to picture the most important events of the school year.

May the school days of this year live again for you in the years to come through the pages of this — your '58 Cereal.

Dear Seniors:

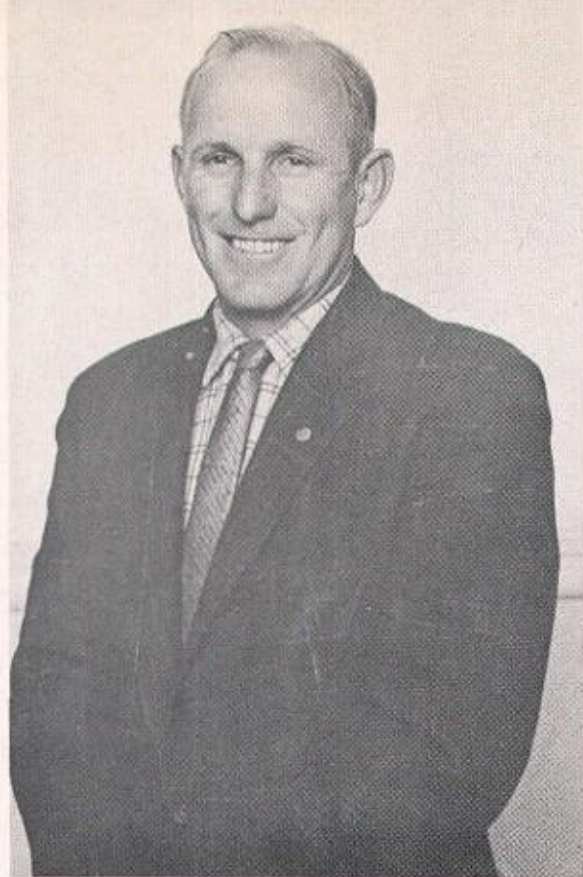

In September, 1954, you were called "poor freshmen" by the then mighty seniors. You were the recipients of much infamous humor and in assemblies you occupied the freshman section. Since those days, each of you, by persistent effort and determination, has earned the distinction of being called a senior. You are to be congratulated for this distinguished achievement.

You will find that your diploma will open doors of opportunity which will not be opened to those who have earned a lesser educational stature. However, I hasten to remind you that your diploma is only a vehicle to assist you along the road to success, and not success itself.

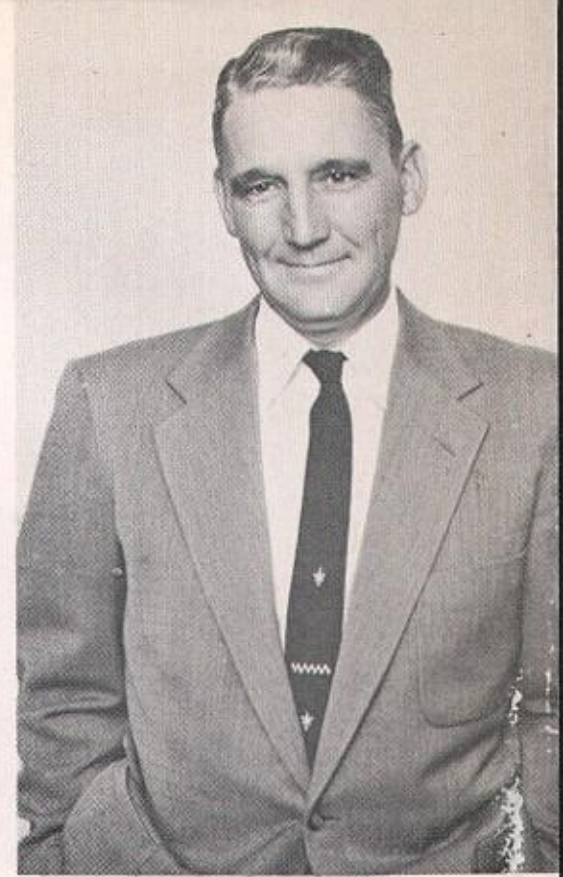

Your graduation comes on the eve of an exciting new scientific era, "space travel." Today, we dream of rocketing to Paris or London for dinner and a night out. Tomorrow, you will dream of taking a weekend holiday to the moon and be back on the job by Monday morning. The academic training required to qualify you for successful competition in the employment market will be greater than ever before. However, the achievement to tomorrow's goals will be accomplished by the same persistent determination which you have demonstrated in achieving a high school diploma.

May I join your parents and friends in wishing you every success as you face the future.

With the arrival of fall, the sharp crunching of leaves underfoot, the lift of the back-to-school days after a long, languid summer, pep rallies, election of class officers, the many dances and other activities, comes Sports!

With the various sports comes rooting sections, and, accompanying the delirium, the yell leaders. Vigorously leading the yells of C.U.H.S. are three well-known personalities around campus: Diane Rohde, Sherry Wilkinson, and Phyllis Story. Putting all the pep and spirit possible into each yell, they encourage the team on to victory. After every game—in victory or defeat—these high spirited girls proudly lead us in the Alma Mater.

Myrna Doty

SONG LEADERS

Brightening the campus with their sparkling personalities are the enchanting song leaders of Ceres Union High School.

Without those inviting smiles, colorful red and white outfits, and encouraging urges to "sing real loud" from our song leaders our sports activities would not be complete. A great deal of the responsibility to arouse school spirit lies on the shoulders of pert Myrna Doty, Bonnie Nall, and Ruth Byfield who do a very good job of inducing that responsibility. Whether in pep assemblies, the football field or on the basketball court, the girls hold an important position in high school memories.
